

May 12, 2014

Jacqueline Basile
c/o Brookings
Human Resources Leadership Forum
1775 Massachusetts Ave NW
Washington DC 20036

Dear Ms. Basile,

On behalf of Dress for Success, Washington D.C., I would like to thank you for hosting a clothing drive with your professional group, Human Resources Leadership Forum, to benefit the women we serve. We are grateful for the support and generosity of your company and employees.

As you may know, an investment in Dress for Success, Washington D.C., is truly an investment in a woman's future and the suit is just the beginning of how we help more than 12,000 women since 2002 in the Washington D.C. area, thrive in work and in life. We give women the confidence, support and the practical skills to succeed in today's workplace and this success can only be achieved with supporters like you.

Dress for Success, Washington D.C., is grateful for all of your support. The commitment we have received on your behalf has helped us fulfill our commitment to the women in the community.

Thank you for joining us in making a difference!

Regards,

Kathleen Yates
Senior Office Operations Manager
202.269.4805
kyates@dfsdc.org